On the Democratic ticket he stated that Governor LEHMAN, Senator WAGNER, and Senator MEAD were acceptable to the Communist Party, but not Representative BARRY of Queens, State Senator DUNNIGAN of the Bronx, or Representative JOHN J. O'CONNOR, whom he termed appeasers and therefore not acceptable to the Communist Party. He also stressed the reelection of V.M., referring to him as New York's only Labor Congressman. The meeting took place on August 7, 1942 at the Oddfellow's Hall, New York City, and was held presumably for the furtherance of the campaign of V.M.

The report of the Confidential Informant further reflected that V.M., in replying to the charge of being a Red, stated, "Out of the many slanders against me, one honorable accusation is unintentionally made. He expressed full confidence that he would win the three parties on Primary Day and that the Right Wing will end up on the outside. He heaped scorn on his discharged secretary, CHARLES MUCCILO, who is now opposing him on the Republican ticket, as a thief who chiseled on home relievers. He denied that MUCCILO broke with him on June 22, 1941 because of his stand on the war, but said he fired him as of June 1st.

V.M., in his speech, attacked the poll tax and urged support of the bill to abolish it. He advised that the people opposing the bill are the same people who opposed the opening of a second front, the same ones who supported Munich, and also likened them to the appeasers of Fascism who refuse assistance to Russia now.

According to this informant, "MARC" said, "The present war will be followed by another war, a people's war for freedom that will sweep away the imperialism of Britain and exploitation of the people."

V.M. further stated, in substance, that there was no greater way to prove to the anti-Fascists of Italy, who will some day take over in Italy, that we in America are fighting an anti-Fascist war than by liberating "one of the outstanding anti-Fascists, Mr. Earl Browder."

100-53054-61: Letter to the Director dated February 22, 1943 re: "THE NATIONALIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO; VITO MARCANTONIO, JUAN ANTONIO CORRETJER; INTERNAL SECURITY - PUERTO RICAN". This letter states that a speech was made by V.M. at a banquet at the Commodore Hotel in New York City on February 21, 1943 held to commemorate the birth of an official propaganda organ, the "PUEBLOS HISPANOS". According to this letter, this banquet was held by the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico. V.M.'S speech was set out in this letter, and the pertinent parts are set forth as follows:

"The launching of this paper is equivalent to the arrival of a large assortment of planes on the battle front. It will mean the destruction of Fascism in New York. I want to congratulate you, its staff and editor. I want to say a word about this editor. He has given six of the best years of his life in his struggle for an ideal. One year was spent in jail in Puerto Rico; five years in the hell-hole of Atlanta, Georgia. This is a tribute not only to the man, but to the courage of the people of Puerto Rico. I flew to Puerto Rico in 1936. All its buildings were blackened with bunting. PEDRO ALBIZU CAMPOS and his colleagues had been found guilty of the crime of wanting to be free. I made a speech from the balcony of the City Hall in San Juan. I told them that the struggle of the people of Puerto Rico was a struggle of the people of the world. I told them that the progressive element would join hands with them and free them. The National Maritime Union is giving its all to aid the people in this struggle for freedom. Labor is joining hands with all the people for freedom. The International Labor Defense Union, of which I am president, is throwing all its weight in an effort to free the great CAMPOS. I make a plea for justice and a plea for freedom. In Congress - the most reactionary Congress that we have seen in the United States is bent towards imperialism. We must have a democratic Congress that will stand up and give Puerto Rico her freedom. There is presently in Congress a pamphlet that was handed around to each Congressman the other day. Do you know what this pamphlet is? A reprint from the Chicago Tribune. It

MEMO:

"belittles Puerto Rico. So does the SCRIPP HOWARD paper, the World Telegram -- all are besmirching Puerto Rico. They are bent on a colonial policy. Why? They are corrupted. Do you realize that four corporations who have their offices here in New York own 70% of the arable land in Puerto Rico?"

V.M. thereafter launched into the economic conditions of Puerto Rico, stating that the average salary of the Puerto Rican was $200 per year. V.M. then stated, "We charge TUGWELL and the administration for this suffering. Puerto Rico has a representative in Congress that is supposed to represent her. He is a fine fellow, a handshaker. You know him -- PAGAN. There is something mighty strange about him. There is an alliance between him and imperialism. There is a move at present in Congress to amend the Puerto Rican laws to do away with Puerto Rican legislature. Why? We are just going back to the principle of the Boston Tea Party. We are trying to legislate for Puerto Rico. This is taxation without representation."

V.M. continued, "Papers like the New York Tribune and others are all ganging up against Puerto Rico. Why? Because the Puerto Rican legislature is trying to give the land back to the people. They say that is Socialism. They say that is putting government in business. Why are they afraid? They are afraid it will take the profit away from the four corporations in New York. They are afraid of something else -- the people's war. They are afraid of a free people. They want to convert the war from a world of four freedoms into an imperialistic war, but they can't stop that. They can't stop the victories of the Great Red Armies in Russia. The victory of ROSTOV was a victory of all free men all over the world. They can't stop us. Bigger things are taking place. They can't stop us. We have in the United States great labor unions, and there are more members in these unions than ever before. These are great things that are taking place. But the puny voices of puny men in Congress are trying to stop them. Right here in the United States, 12,000,000 Negro voices are crying for democracy. We are struggling to defeat imperialism forever, but they are keeping the great DON CAMPOS in jail and Puerto Rico in shackles. Once blood is let loose for that freedom, then we shall have freedom."

Transmitted with this letter were copies of a memorandum from a confidential source containing information concerning the background of the above named individual. This letter further advised that copies of this memorandum should not be made available to outside agencies or incorporated in an investigative report, unless paraphrased. This memorandum from the confidential source reads as follows:

MEMO:
NY 100-53054

"Rep. VITO MARCANTONIO, whose appointment to the important House Judiciary Committee has created a storm of protest, has been active in 110 Communist or Communist-front organizations in the past ten years, a survey revealed.

"His prestige as a congressman and his talents as a speaker have been utilized by the Communist Party to advance whatever cause Moscow advocated at the time, the survey revealed.

"The ever-changing 'party line' posed no problem to VM, who veered with the news from the Kremlin and generally found himself in full accord with the policies of the 'Daily Worker'.

"House Democrats opposed to his appointment have joined forces to block confirmation of his seating. The Democratic control of the House is threatened by the bitterness of the intra-party dispute.

"Although the major part of his activity has centered in New York City, V.M. has emerged as a national figure in Communist eyes, due to his impassioned support of whatever cause attracted the party line.

"During the days of the Hitler-Stalin pact, V.M. not only voted in the House against every defense measure, but stumped from Union Square to Columbus Circle, attending every Red rally as an honored speaker denouncing 'imperialist war' at the drop of a hat.

"As long-time president of the International Labor Defense, records of the Dies Committee show V.M. lending not only his name, but vocal cords to the cause of an organization set up at the orders of the Communist International.

"The ILD, which has headquarters at 799 Broadway, a block away from the national headquarters of the Communist Party, was shown by the Dies Committee to be an outgrowth of International Red Aid, which was created by Moscow in 1922.

MEMO:
NY 100-53054

"V.M. became president of the American Branch in 1937 and has remained as a leader of the organization since that time.

"Even the Labor Defender, organ of the ILD, proclaimed the political character of the group as far back as 1929 when it stated: 'There is little wonder in the fact that the idea of a world organization for workers' defense has originated in the Soviet Union'.

"When confronted with such evidence, V.M., testifying before the Dies Committee in 1939, said:

"I did definitely ascertain for myself whether or not the International Labor Defense which was convened here in 1937 was connected with the Communist Party, and I ascertained that it was definitely not connected with the Communist Party.'

"He was one of the first orators to whoop it up for the American League Against War and Fascism, an organization which dropped both words when it became apparent that Stalin was against neither.

"As soon as its name changed V.M. quickly joined the group's stepchild, the American League for Peace and Democracy. This was in 1938, according to records of the Dies Committee.

"When the Communists sought to take over the Loyalist cause during the Spanish Civil War, V.M. quickly threw his oratory in the direction of such organizations as the American Friends of Spanish Democracy and the North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy.

"When the signing of the Hitler-Stalin pact in 1939, V.M. dropped from such 'fronts' as the United Action Against Fascism and Anti-Semitism and Stumped for the American Students Union, Emergency Peace Mobilization and other Stalinist outfits dedicated to the pact with Hitler.

"Since 1933 V.M. has either joined or supported the International Workers Order, Unemployment Councils, Workers Alliance, two Leagues for Democracy and American Youth Congress.

MEMO:
NY 100-53054

"All of these organizations, according to the Dies Committee, are major parts of the Communist plan of Trojan horse 'boring from within' revolutionary groups.

"Neither was V.M. adverse to occasional contacts with the Red variety of arts and sciences. On file with the Dies Committee are records of his membership and sponsorship of such versatile proletarian bands as the Theatre Arts Committee, League of American Writers, and Artists Union.

"In addition to these many 'fronts', V.M. at one time or another during his career has supported the followed pro-Red organizations:

"The Refugee Scholarship and Peace Campaign, Lawyers Committee on American Relations with Spain, Coordinating Committee Against Profiteering, Jewish Peoples' Committee, American Friends of the Chinese People, German-American League for Culture, National Negro Congress, Consumers Union, and National Committee for People's Rights.

"Following Hitler's invasion of Russia, V.M. plummeted from his platform of 'The Yanks Are Not Coming' to an all-out espousal of the war effort.

"In 1936 he ran under the Communist nomination as well as the Republican. In 1938, 1940, and 1942 he had the Republican and American Labor nominations and also in 1942, the Democratic nomination. He ran first in 1934 as a Republican.

"Here is the record of V.M. from the Dies Committee's files:

"In a national broadcast on May 30, 1941, just three weeks before Hitler invaded Russia, V.M. attacked the president in the following language:

"You have been saying, and are saying no, to convoys, to an American expeditionary force (V.M. then charges

"(Roosevelt with) an attempt to set up a dictatorship over the life of every American.

"There is no difference between a Nazi system and a system as set up by the President in his speech...Now conscription is revealed in its true light as training for a war of aggression.

"You, the American people, were even tricked into a phony presidential election... The people are being sneaked into this war.. Fraud and deception has been used throughout this whole scheme and conspiracy.... No, this is not a war for democracy. It is a war for conquest.

"Examine the record of the people who are asking your sons to die for this so-called democracy of theirs...they ask that you sacrifice for their kind of democracy, for a democracy which means war, empire, 52,000,000 empty stomachs....

"More taxes for you, and more profits for them, a destroyed Bill of Rights, persecuted foreign born, lynchings, a shackled labor and an impoverished farmer....

"I appeal to you to unite, stand up as free men and free women... and let the world know that you refuse to be sneaked into this war, that you refuse to be duped by fraud and deception into this war. Unite and fight!"

"In March, 1941, V.M.'S name appeared under the following statement given to the public:

"But even if we don't approve of England's war, isn't her side still preferable to Hitler's; and isn't it better to fight and beat Hitler with England than without her?

"No, an English victory will result in the same sort of imperialist, anti-Democratic peace as will a Nazi victory."

EUGENE GORDON, of the Daily Worker, conferred with MAE relative to the JAMES PEMBERTON case, a Negro who attempted to obtain an appointment as confidential clerk to the New York Supreme Court Justices. GORDON advised that, according to an article in the Herald Tribune, the reason PEMBERTON was not appointed was because of his close association with V.M. GORDON said that V.M. called him on this this A.M. and advised that it was a lie, stating PEMBERTON was not appointed because he was a Negro.

Thereupon GORDON conferred with AMTER and finally with GENE CONNOLLY, who advised GORDON that he was a close friend of the Congressman. They discussed the PEMBERTON case also. GORDON stated that V.M. called him from Washington, asking him not to use certain statements that he (V.M.) made, that there were certain justices who want PEMBERTON appointed and furthermore that V.M. did not want anything said that would imply that he was going to make an attack on the Supreme Court itself. GORDON then read an item he was going to print regarding the affair and wanted to get his (CONNOLLY'S) opinion of it. He read as follows:

"The World Telegram's FREDERICK WOLTMAN has read the attack on Mr. PEMBERTON, the reason given being friendship between PEMBERTON and V.M. That paper alleges that the Congressman is a 'Red' and that any friend of his in a Supreme Court clerkship would be controlled by Reds."

GORDON said he would conclude this article by blaming the attack on the conspiracy of reactionary mystic fascists, Christian fronters, and white supremacy gangsters. He quoted V.M. as saying, "These people gang up on anybody and everybody who fights for equality and progress."

CONNOLLY agreed with the item, with the exception of the part where it mentioned "that the Congressman is a Red", and requested that it be changed to, "This was consistent with the World Telegram's campaign of sneering."

ALEX replied in the affirmative, but that he had a meeting first and that he would be there between 10:30 and 11:00.

C: "Hello.

B: "Hello. This is MARCANTONIO'S headquarters, and the Congressman has asked me to contact Mr. CURRAN and Mr. MYERS for the purpose of having appointments for them to speak in his campaign for the 18th Congressional. There is a committee working on MARC'S (phonetic) literature, and they got to go to press almost immediately and they want a number of one or two sentence statements from prominent trade union leaders on why they are supporting MARC. Now I wanted to ask you if you could do this.

The girl who is taking charge of the literature is a girl by the name of HILDA MEADOW at the Russian War Relief. I wonder if you could give your secretary a brief note, you know, and have her send it to her so she could get it tomorrow. ----- inquired as to "How does MARC'S fight look?" SMITH replied it looked pretty good and that they were concentrating on him.

On July 7, 1944 IRVING POTASH of the Furriers Union conferred with GIL GREEN. GREEN advised that he had just received a frantic call from V.M.'S headquarters, advising him that V.M. wished to see him, on something urgent, at 1:00 PM. The conversation that followed indicated that they were considering ways of raising money by calling together the "top people".

On the same date GIL GREEN conferred with V.M., who was at his office, at which time GREEN advised V.M. that he would have to see him later on in the day because of numerous appointments that he had. V.M. then complained to GREEN about the morning's meeting because of the fact that, with the exception of MIKE and POTASH and BLACKIE MYERS, he didn't have a single responsible union leader there; that what they pledged was entirely inadequate insofar as forces or funds go. The conversation then terminated and GREEN and V.M. agreed to meet at 6:30.

On the same date BARNEY CONAL, of the Greater New York Industrial Union Council, C.I.O., conferred with GIL GREEN. GREEN advised CONAL that MARC'S campaign was "in a disgraceful state of affairs". that under date of July 14, 1944 conferences were held between SCOTTY EDWARDS, MC CONNELL, MALLOY, and JOSEPH SWEAT. According to this memorandum, this report shows the activity of the National Maritime Union in connection with V.M.'S campaign. The conversation of the aforementioned people is reported as follows:

SCOTTY EDWARDS advised MALLOY that the fellow that works down at the South African Lines, who is working with V.M. on contact work, has suggested that a launch be used on the East River with a sign on it worded as follows: "National Maritime Union Keeps Them Sailing. Reelect V.M." He stated that a lot of people do not like to stand at street meetings and that here was a good chance to get to the people inasmuch as a great many of them sit out there at night.

SCOTTY then talked to JOE SWEAT, suggesting that he talk to MC CONNELL down at the American South African Line because he had a good idea. He then turned JOE SWEAT over to MC CONNELL. MC CONNELL advised that after talking it over with GENE CONNOLLY and V.M. it was decided it would be a good idea to make a sign reading as aforementioned and to have it placed on a launch to cruise up and down the East River.

It was MC CONNELL'S idea that the National Maritime Union should handle this end of the launch idea. JOE SWEAT stated that he talked to TONY RIBATTO (phonetic) and that they decided the best thing to do would be to do the house-to-house canvassing. When the expense of the launch project was brought up, MC CONNELL placed SCOTTY back on the phone with JOE. JOE then told SCOTTY to let MC CONNELL make arrangements to get the launch, and that "We will get the sign printed, get it mounted on there, and get the thing manned." When JOE said, "We can't foot the bill", SCOTTY ventured as to whether the N.M.U. couldn't volunteer to do this and foot the bill. JOE protested and stated that, "We spent $5,000 already, for Christ's sake." SCOTTY then suggested that maybe they could get the patrolmen to chip in $5 a piece. JOE requested SCOTTY to make the recommendation and that a patrolman would then be assigned to take care of getting the whole job done.

100-53054-14: A clipping from the Daily Worker dated April 15, 1944. This article reflects briefly that Congressman V.M. characterized VICTOR RIESEL, New York Post columnist, "the filthiest liar in the newspaper business". This article further reflects the fact that "The American Labor Party Congressman (V.M.) charged that RIESEL'S column, which suggested that V.M. was angling for the Democratic candidacy for president of the City Council in 1945, is a complete falsehood, without a shred of truth in it."

April 28, 1944, Page 2, Column 3: According to this article, V.M. was to speak before a gathering of the Italian-American Section of the I.W.O. and several C.I.O. and A.F. of L. unions on April 30, 1944 at Cooper Union Institute to celebrate the new Italian cabinet in Italy. Union, also addressed the rally, at which he greeted Italy's anti-Fascist government, stating that it included all political tendencies and parties seeking Italy's independence.

According to this article, the speakers ripped into LUIGI ANTONINI and GENEROSO PEPE, editor of IL PROGRESSO ITALO-AMERICANO, who attacked the new Italian government. 100-53054-19: A clipping dated May 3, 1944 from the Daily Worker. This article reflects in part as follows:

"Representative V.M. (A.L.P. - N.Y.) yesterday retorted sharply to the unnamed person, allegedly a Supreme Court Justice, who, according to the Herald Tribune, spoke against JAMES M. PEMBERTON'S appointment to a clerkship because the Negro district leader is too close a friend of the Congressman's."

This article also stated in part that the Herald Tribune's story was another in a series on the application of PEMBERTON, Democratic leader of the 17th Assembly District, who had applied for the job of confidential clerk to the 36 Supreme Court justices in Manhattan and the Bronx. This article reflected the fact that PEMBERTON had been recommended for the job by Democratic county leader EDWARD V. DOUGHLIN.

This article further reflected that, according to V.M., "The whole history of the case has been marked by conspiracy on the part of reactionaries and domestic fascists, Christian fronters, and white-supremacy gangsters. These people gang up on anybody and everybody who fights for equality and progress."

This article further advised that Representative JAMES M. CURLEY was a star witness and emphasized that his Italian-American constituents, who give so much to the war effort, deserve passage of this resolution which is so close to their hearts.

This article further reflected the fact that ERNEST DE MAIO of Chicago was present, and that he represented not only the district United Electrical Workers, but also the Chicago Italian American Victory Council with 100,000 members. GUSTAV CAPORALE, president of the Pittsburgh Paper Workers Organizing Committee, was also there and represented virtually all Italian Americans in the Allegheny Valley.

"The factional split in the American Labor Party in the city was widened today, with DEAN ALFANGE, chairman of the Liberal and Labor Committee to Safeguard the American Labor Party, charging a plot is being hatched by left-wing party leaders, working with Tammany machine politicians 'to get a stranglehold on the city government' in 1945.

"ALFANGE charged that Representative V.M., left-wing leader in Manhattan, is 'in alliance with the worst elements of Tammany Hall' and is the head of SIDNEY HILLMAN'S Committee for a United Labor party in Manhattan, which, he asserted, is a 'combine of machine politicians, Communists, and underworld elements.'"

"They saw the deposed A.L.P. right-wing leaders, the COUNTS - ROSE - ARMSTRONG - DUBINSKY group definitely abandon the Party to its HILLMAN captors. They saw the appointment of new HILLMAN-approved Party officers and committees.

"They saw this new state A.L.P. set-up dominated, not alone by HILLMAN, who was recently declared by the Dies Committee to have replaced BROWDER as the leader of American Communists, but also by Representative V.M., whose Communist sympathies and affiliations are well and widely known.

"The NEAL-MARCANTONIO deal, disclosed by the World Telegram for applying Tammany pressure to Supreme Court justices to secure the appointment of JAMES PEMBERTON, MARCANTONIO protege, to $6,500 a year court clerkship, is regarded as a sign and symptom of what is going on in a Tammany now reported to be bossed far more by district leader NEAL than by Tammany leader LOUGHLIN."

KENNEDY, regular Democratic candidate.

["V.M., sniveling little pro-Communist who stood out against this country as Joe Stalin's sole representative in the Congress of the United States, will seek the Republican and Democratic nominations, in addition to that of the ALP, which he already owns, in the primary elections tomorrow.

"In our opinion, as an official he is utterly no good, a liability to the City of New York, a disgrace to the nation's Congress and an enemy of everything that American democracy should stand for.

This article further advises that V.M. was vice president of the so-called American Peace Mobilization, referred to as the "Communist front organization created to resist any American policy that ran counter to the policies of Stalin and Hitler, then allies in a non-aggression pact."

This article further reflects that this organization had picketed the White House and slandered the President for the cause of "Mother Russia"; that V.M. screeched "Dictator", and other epithets when President Roosevelt, in his 1941 Jackson Day speech, called for a firm stand against Communists, Nazis, and defeatists.

This article further set forth the fact that V.M. voted against all national defense appropriations up until June 22, 1941, on which date the alliance of "the earth's two blackest dictatorships was broken; Hitler attacked Russia."

This article further states that overnight V.M. and all Communists "achieved the mental and moral flip-flop that put them behind the defense effort 100 per cent -- not for this country's good, but for Russia's."

100-53054-51: A clipping dated September 26, 1944 from the New York Journal American. This is an article by HOWARD BUSHMORE captioned "Vito's Pamphlet Extolls FDR". This article in part reflects as follows:

"Rep. V.M. today lived up to his political reputation of remembering his friends.

"In honor of Earl Browder's herd, the pro-Communist CIO and the various other pinks and leftist s who banded behind Sidney Hillman's PAC to re-elect the 18th District Congressman last August, pro-Red VITO has:

"1. Bent his fine literary hand to a panegyric extolling the indubitable benefits of a fourth term in the form of a gaudy pamphlet, 'Security with FDR'.

"2. Paid off at least one political debt to the International Workers' Order, Communist welfare, insurance and burying agency by allowing these MARCANTONIO supporters officially to distribute the pamphlet.

"3. Allowed MAX BEDACHT, head of the IWO, and a member of the Communist Party's Central Committee, to write a foreword in which, suprising enough, the Communists agree with VITO that FDR should be returned to office."

According to this article, 100,000 copies of this pamphlet will be distributed by the "Comrades".
